Signing up for a Meal Plan

- All freshmen living on campus are required to have a meal plan at the bronze level or higher.
- Any student (other than freshmen) living on campus are not required to have a meal plan, but can choose to for convenience.
  - All students may sign up for a meal plan online when registering for housing by going to the Residential Life’s website (http://www.reslife.okstate.edu/).
- You do not have to live on campus to have a meal plan. Any student can have a meal plan.
  - If the student will not be living on campus, he/she can sign up by sending an email to dining@okstate.edu with the student’s Name, CWID, and meal plan choice (if choosing Plan G, please list the amount you wish to start with in increments of $100). The amount for the chosen plan will be billed to his/her bursar account.

Greek Housing

- If a student has joined a fraternity or sorority and will be moving into Greek housing they can cancel their meal plan before the first day of class. After the 1st day of class there is a penalty.
- If a student is a freshman that has joined a fraternity or sorority but lives on campus they are still required to have a meal plan.

Changing Meal Plans

- A student can change, but not cancel, their meal plan within the first week of class (of either semester) with no penalty. There is no penalty to increase a meal plan after the first week, but there is a $50 charge to decrease a meal plan.
- If students run out of money on a meal plan, additional funds can be added at any time.
- All cancellations or changes to meal plans need to be sent in an email to dining@okstate.edu with the student’s Name, CWID, and the desired change.
  - Tip: Cancelling your housing contract does not automatically cancel your meal plan.
- The Meal Plan Office cannot speak to parents about their student’s meal plan unless they have a FERPA on file. This can be done in the Registrar’s Office.
